One day there was a girl called Abi and she was dislesik and one day had to go to a new school.

Abi one day had problems spelling a quite easy word so she asked the person next to her so he told her and carried on. But the bully didn't forget he made Abi's life but she didn't tell anyone so the bully carried on bullying her!

But... On day a new girl came so the bullies started to bully her but she told someone so they went back to Abi but Abi had learnt her lesson and told someone too and her and the new girl became friends!

Bullying

Bullying is bad,
Bullying is mean,
And once you have started,
You feel quite keen.

Once you have started,
You feel quite sly,
Why would you do it?
Oh why, Oh why!

Please don't bully,
It's horrid and cruel,
The person that's being
Bullied,
Would rather drown in a pool!

!Bullying!

One day there was a boy that got bullying all the time he did not do anything about it then one day his mum saw him upset so he said some people had been bullying him so the next day she went to the head teacher and the headteacher told the kids mums and the kids said they would not do it again but they did in school and out of school so the boy's mum said have they been bullying him and he said no because the kids said not to grass on him or the kids would do it again and again.

But one day at school the kids said where is he and the boy did not go to school for a year and two weeks so it did get very bad. So one day the kids went to his home but the kids did not go to bully him they went to say sorry to him and now they are mates.

The Power Of Me

Today I bullied someone,
He was very sad,
Everything went wrong.

Power of me was bad,
Olly didn't like me anymore,
What I did was wrong,
Everything turned me into a bully,
Really I wanted to be his friend,
But,

Olly didn't want to be mine,
Finally the teachers sorted it out,
Me, myself and I stopped bullying then...
Everything went right!

Will This Go Away?

All of this started last year in May,
But when I am thinking I'm dreading the next day,
I will not tell my mum, I will not tell my dad,
I can't believe it has got this bad.
Then I found out my friend was on their team
What have I done? Why are you so mean?

Then that day came, it was time it went away
I told my dad ..... Hurray.

! The bully!

A bully came to school today.
He frightened me to death.
He pushed me on the floor.
I shouted "help, help!!"
Someone came over and said "what's wrong"
"Can't you see you silly fool he pushed me on the floor."
Give me your money. I have no money for my dinner."
The head teacher came and said get off him he rejected because he wants his money.
He went to the head teacher's office.
She said "Why was you bullying that boy?"
He said "because things have been happening at home and I am really angry."
So he went and said sorry.

Story

A girl was at the park and some other girls came. She was playing on the swing, they pushed her off and they sat on the swing. The girl said "I want my swing back." The other girl said "you are so stupid and this is where we hang out so go away but this is a public park and we like it, if you want to stay here you have to give us £1.00 each." So she did and they locked the gate and called her names she said "you let me go" so she ran out and the next day she went back to the park. "NO!!!" she said and the bullies left her alone.

Story about bullying!

Hi my name is called Emma my best friend is called Ella I can tell funny stories about moters and Ghones and more. She lets me go round and play and have tea. One day I went to school my best friend when someone came up and said "You are so ugly, know that?" then he said things that weren't true about us and then he said "give me your money, you know, the money for your dinner."

"We don't have the money for dinner we are having sandwiches instead of a dinner."

So we left him at school but he run up again and said that we have to give him our homework so we said "NO!" so he grabbed our rucksack and took the homework and left us alone then I went home and went upstairs to my room and went online to tell my best friends and said to them that I have been bullied at school today again. My best friend said that I should tell my mum about what happened at school today so I did. She said that I should run to a teacher and say to her that I was being bullied so I did.

Bully

Do not bully 'cos you can hurt someone and they could tell you off and you get told off and if they ring your parents you could get in more trouble by your parents. And you never know you could get grounded.
